“The degree of civilization in a society can be judged by entering its prisons”

(Dostoyevsky, “The House of the Dead”)

Foreword

It is sometimes hard to find one's way through the complex world of services and institutions. Citizens may face obstacles in fulfilling their legitimate expectations and needs. But this situation becomes even more difficult for persons detained, interned or released from prison. Their peculiar condition may become an insuperable barrier to the achievement of their rights, their social reintegration, as well as their personal dignity.

In this view, we hold in very high regard the "Guide to Rights. Orienting between norms and prison practices", published by the Department of Law of the University of Torino and the Fondazione CRT, in collaboration with students and professors.

The Regional Parliament of Piemonte - with the Regional Committee for Human Rights and the Regional Guarantor for the rights of persons detained or deprived of personal liberty - supports the project of this useful and effective Guide. Moreover, we decided to publish this "Handbook for detainees and persons deprived of liberty in the Piemonte Region", as a complementary tool to the Guide.

The whole society is highly interested in supporting the Penitentiary Administration to enforce the principle stated by art. 27 of the Italian Constitution: "Punishments may not be inhuman and shall aim at re-educating the convicted".

The Regional Parliament of Piemonte is willing to contribute to the affirmation of human rights, and, by means of the present Handbook, the rights of those who are deprived of their liberty.

Mauro Laus

President of the Regional Parliament of Piemonte

President of the Regional Committee for Human Rights

Enrica Baricco

Vice-President of the Regional Committee for Human Rights

“Know to deliberate” is one of the most famous teachings by Luigi Einaudi. Only aware and well-informed citizens are able to give a substantial contribution to civil life.

Furthermore, to become protagonist in our own life, we need to know the interconnections, the networks, and functions of our complex modern society.

People may often find it hard to understand and orientate themselves: Who? What? How? Where? When?... and sometimes also Why? A more fragile citizen may often be unprepared to cope with life. People from disadvantaged backgrounds, with serious problems, who might have experienced a period of detention, are more likely to lose their way when facing bureaucratic issues.

In this view, all the twelve Municipal Guarantors of Piemonte, with the Regional Guarantor for the rights of persons deprived of personal liberty, want to acknowledge the University of Torino for its new and updated Guide to the rights of detainees.

Moreover, the Regional Coordination of Guarantors expresses its satisfaction with the Regional Committee for Human Rights of the Piemonte Regional Parliament for enhancing the students and professors work by publishing and disseminating, in association with the “Guide to rights”, this “Handbook for detainees and persons deprived of liberty in the Piemonte Region”.

This Handbook is intended to be a practical tool for surviving in this specific, complex and interconnected world. A special thanks to Giuliana Turrone for the translation of this Handbook.

Prison Administration and Prisons

Amministrazione penitenziaria e Istituti di pena

What they are and what they do

The Prison Administration is managed, at a regional level, by units called “Provveditorati regionali”, in the framework of the Ministry of Justice. The “Provveditorato del Piemonte, Liguria e Valle d’Aosta” is based in Torino.

The “Provveditorati regionali” have responsibility for staff, service and prison organisation, detainees and inmates, relations with local and regional authorities, and with the National health service. They perform these functions at a local level, according to the Prison Administration Department’s programmes, directives, and policies, in order to ensure uniformity of the penitentiary action on the national territory.

In Piemonte, there are thirteen prisons (“Istituti penali”) for adults and one correctional youth centre. Those who committed an offence under the age of 18 have the right to remain in the correctional youth centre up to the age of 25, according to law 117/2014.

What they are and what they do

The UEPE-External Enforcement Services' main function is the enforcement of non-custodial criminal penalties and alternative measures to detention. - investigation on probation seekers' personal, family and social situation;
- providing information, on surveillance judiciary demand, to help them reach decisions on the application, modification, extension or revocation of security measures;

Surveillance Judges

Magistratura di Sorveglianza

Surveillance Court and Offices

The Surveillance Court is a collegial body. Its territorial jurisdiction covers the whole Court of Appeal district. On the other hand, the Surveillance Office jurisdiction is defined on the basis of the province areas as well as on the location of the different prisons.

Surveillance Judge

The surveillance judge oversees the prison organization and decides on the final sentence enforcement. The surveillance judge grants, at the request of the interested party, the so called “benefici”, temporary or early releases, alternative measures to detention, and all other matters under his/her jurisdiction, as provided by the penitentiary law and the penal code (security measures). Moreover, the surveillance judge oversees that the defendants are kept in custody in accordance with laws and regulations, as provided by Article 69 of Penitentiary Law.

The Surveillance Offices within the Torino Court of Appeal district are five: Alessandria, Cuneo, Novara, Torino, and Vercelli.

The single judge’s jurisdiction is based on various criteria, such as alphabetical (the initial letter of the detainee’s name) and territorial (the prison venue).

Guarantors for the Rights of Persons Detained or Deprived of Personal Liberty

Garanti dei diritti delle persone detenute o private della libertà personale

NATIONAL GUARANTOR

What it is and what it does

The National Guarantor (NG) is an independent collegial body that monitors and visits any site of detention or deprivation of personal liberty, such as prisons, police detention cells, centres for migrants, REMS, the recently established institutes after the OPG closure, the mandatory medical treatments (TSO). Visits are aimed at identifying critical issues and finding solutions, in cooperation with the authority in charge. Moreover, the NG expresses remarks and specific recommendations for situations that originate protests or complaints by the persons deprived of their liberty, except for the jurisdictional claims requiring the Surveillance Judge intervention.

The Italian NG has two other main duties. The first one follows the ratification of the United Nations' Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture. The Optional Protocol puts Member States under an obligation to set up an independent National Preventive Mechanism to oversee, by means of visits and access to relevant information, all places of deprivation of liberty, in order to prevent any treatment contrary to the dignity of the human person. The second one is the control, as a national designated independent body, on the enforcement of illegally staying non-EU nationals forced returns, as required by the European Union Return Directive (2008).

NOTE

Guarantors for the rights of persons deprived of personal liberty exist in many European Countries. In Italy, it took from 1997 to 2013 for this institution to be established, but it was only in 2016 that the collegial body members were appointed and the office set up.

REGIONAL GUARANTORS IN ITALY AND PIEMONTE

What they are and what they do

The Regional Guarantor defends and protects the rights of persons deprived of personal liberty (not only persons detained in prison) in accordance with the powers established by the regional law. S/He has competence over the regional territory.

The Regional and local Guarantors gather, on a voluntary basis, in a National Coordination of regional, provincial and municipal guarantors.

In conformity to article 1, paragraph 4, of its institutive law, s/he “operates in full autonomy and with independent judgment and evaluation”. S/ He contributes to ensuring the rights of persons, adults or minors, in prison, those who are admitted to alternative measures, or transferred to health facilities for mandatory medical treatment, as well as persons in first reception centres or centres for the identification and expulsion of irregular migrants.
