

Mc Mafia. Pencils against mafias

The exhibition, curated by the Cosenza Cartoon Museum, proposes a collective gaze on the history of comics through the testimonies of the heroes of the fight against mafias since the post-war years. The show tries to tell a phenomenon like mafias emphasizing how its perception has changed over time. It is an operation of dissemination of issues of legality and commitment against mafias through comics: a unique language of a kind able to talk to all and give back to the community testimonies often forgotten, spreading the anti-mafia culture from the bottom up.

Thirty works are on show divided in three sections: the first reminds the figures of Peppino Impastato, Giovanni Falcone and Paolo Borsellino; the second is dedicated to Mauro Rostagno while in the third the reporters Pippo Fava and Giancarlo Siani are presented.
